7. Wall of Fame

Stu confirmed that a meeting had been held two weeks ago and Committee was moving forward in reviewing candidates in a timely manner. Stu thanked Gregg and Claudia for their help in this regard. Deadline for nominations is December 31,2021.

8. KidSport

Bob provided details on the status to date i.e. 12 applications received in May and to date 44 boys, 34 girls and 74 youth applications. Applications are less than a normal year and the next meeting was scheduled for June 15th.

Fund Raising

Steve reported on the fund raising via M and M Meats which raised $800 and the social media promotion via Rob Fey podcasts and 7 interviews with athletes; .all of which helped to raise the profile of KidSport. Stu enquired about the City contribution of $5000 for non PSO applicants. Gregg and Bob to meet and discuss.

9. AnnouncementsResignation of Lance Carey

Jim praised Lance for his invaluable contribution over many years and his volunteer dedication to Richmond Field Hockey Club. Lance is a Life Member and would be sorely missed by his colleagues and the sporting community.

Curling Club

The Curling Club is actively promoting non-ice activities and the Office and Business Development Manager, Janice Froese may be contacted during day hours, Monday to Friday.

Our next Curling Club Special General Meeting will be held June 23/21 and a further report will be posted into the July minutes.
